

Isle of Wight photographers, 1840-1940

University of Southampton Libraries - Landscape photography of the Isle of Wight by Available Light

Description: -

-

Travel

Asia - Southwest

ASIA

Tourism industry

Photography -- England -- Isle of Wight -- History.

Photographers -- England -- Isle of Wight -- Biography.Isle of Wight photographers, 1840-1940

-Isle of Wight photographers, 1840-1940

Notes: Includes bibliographical references.

This edition was published in 2001

Filesize: 63.47 MB

Tags: #Sources

Isle of Wight Family History Society

Before his death in 1799, Hotham had built a large hotel, a library with adjoining reading rooms, a number of shops and facilities for bathing in warm sea water.

Sources

Around 1847, James Scott married Amelia born c1826, London and set up home in Islington, where two daughters were born - Amelia born 1849 and Alice born 1852. The website can be searched by any keyword, e. John Hannavy ed , Encyclopedia of Nineteenth Century Photography, two volumes, Routledge, 2008.

Isle of Wight Family History

There are also notes on IW books illustrated with original photographs, and IW photographic societies. The Branch Studios of E. By 1891, William Hillmer was working as a photographer and was living in the Southampton area, residing in South Stoneham, the same district where Elizabeth Mentor was lodging at the time of the 1891 census.

Isle of Wight Family History

With help from the Rural Development Commission, the present centre was opened in 1996. After her husband's death in 1886, Mrs Amelia Scott moved to Wanstead in Essex with her younger son Robert.

Professional Photographers in Bo

By the time the 1871 census was taken, James Scott was living with his wife and four children at 61 High Street, Ryde.

Portrait&studio photographers in the UK: 19th&early 20th Century

Northwood Cemetery Cowes Friends of Northwood Cemetery This website has been set up to represent the work of the Friends of Northwood Cemetery. Around 1896, William Hillmer acquired the studio of Eugene De Fontaine at 43a Ship Street, Brighton.

Isle of Wight Family History

Site last updated 04 May 2021.

Isle of Wight Family History Society

It holds the Camille Silvy studio daybooks pre-1860-1866 and some Bassano material Selected general historical sources Census of Great Britain, 1841-1911, available on-line through various providers. Glass beads became much more common after the Romans introduced the industrial method of cutting beads from a drawn tube.

Related Books

- Wakefield - its history and people.
- Poesia ; Hospital de incurables
- Linea di sorriso
- Basic biogeography
- Constitution of the Arab Empire