Our new name reaffirms our family-run operation for years to come, guided by our value of the supremacy of love and its power to elevate compassion and the quality of life of those entrusted to us. As our family grows, it is my hope to update this section with more posts about managing all aspects of family life with a large family.

Family Dynamics

Violent crimes initially spiked during the first few years of the Great Depression, but nationwide, rates of homicides and violent crimes began to fall sharply between 1934 and 1937—a downward trend that continued until the 1960s. In the epic clash of living room vs.

Life Sharing Through Family Living

Crime was mythologized, but this was largely hype. But what you can do is to make a habit of having dinner together with your family. Family quarrels, grudges and estrangement can have lasting effects, sometimes following members into old age.

Life for the Average Family During the Great Depression

And in an unstable family, the felt by one person can reverberate throughout an entire household.
