Pojagi / Bojagi

Sensitive combinations of fabric colour and surface texture are common, while the fabric as a whole remains ultimately utilitarian. I was SO lucky today to go with my friend, Mary, to Jill's house for her to show us the 'Bojagi' technique! Both symmetrical 'regular' and random-seeming 'irregular' patterned cloths were sewn, with styles presumably selected by an individual woman's aesthetic tastes.

12 Quilt

This is a beautiful, transparent quilt made by Jill Ault from Ann Arbor. Years ago I used to be able to stitch finely but with concentrating on large dramatic stitches in my quilts, I've lost the knack. I joined the Surface Design Association as I knew she'd taught at their conferences and hoped to get to one someday.
