Published Proceedings 13th International Workshop on Deep Inelastic Scattering DIS 05 , Madison, WI, April 27-May 1, 2005. It's an opportunity for users to get answers, advice, and suggestions regarding their specific implementations, and to share their insights with colleagues. A specific aspect of the ISVHECRI series is to focus on high energy hadron collisions of cosmic ray particles and related topics including all directions of very, and extremely, high energy cosmic ray studies with air showers.
