Ganley Lincoln of Middleburg Heights

In place of establishing a separate sales and service network for Continental, the Mark II was marketed through Lincoln the Mark II used a Lincoln engine and transmission. Following the positive feedback of the 1939 Lincoln Continental one-off convertible built for Edsel Ford, the Lincoln Continental was introduced as a Lincoln-Zephyr production model for 1940. Along with producing the first purpose-built presidential limousine, Lincoln produced two of the first armored vehicles for presidential use.

Automotive

The Montego saw a revision to its model range, as its fastback body style was discontinued.

Lincoln of Cincinnati

Mercury woodgrain-trim station wagons used the Villager nameplate, in line with the Ford Squire name.

Lincoln Motor Company

Always get me in and out and explain all that needs attention. At the rate they are going, I will be a customer for life.

Lincoln of Cincinnati

By 1930, Lincoln had succeeded in only a decade in what its chief competitors had taken 30 years to accomplish.
