Brahmi script

Journal, 1866, and in Mr. It is the usual word for other or another: dên aral, another man. A note in Pryce says that Tonkin had it from Lhuyd and p.

Romaine

Virtually all authors accept that regardless of the origins, the differences between the Indian script and those proposed to have influenced it are significant. On the south side of this bee-hive habitation a door was contrived by planting two jambs in the soil at right angles to the walls, standing about 2 feet 6 inches high, and placing over these a broad flat slab as lintel, on which the structure of the dome could be continued, and could rest.

Quartz thin section

If there is a succession of genitives, only the last noun can have an article. It is to some extent a following of Dr.
