Radical Christianity: What if Jesus really meant what He said?

In times of crisis, prophets are the ones who dare calling attention to societal ills and declaring a new path, as radical as it may be. NS: There are so many competing claims for supernatural revelation; some people say they adjudicate truth by the Bible, or by papal authority.

Prophetic Politics: an introduction

Tangling with the work of Derrida, Deleuze, Spinoza, Antonio Negri, Giorgio Agamben, Alain Badiou, John D. In the end, the dissertation reads radical theology alongside contemporary examples of political upheaval in a performance of a theology of resistance.

Religion for radicals: An interview with Terry Eagleton

One suggestion I made to the conference planners is to give a more practical focus to future conversations. Specifically, he claims we should think about God and the state in terms of potentiality rather than sovereign power.

[PDF] Radical Political Theology: Religion and Politics After Liberalism

liberation theology

Good earnest discussion, the question came from the floor, How do we make the common good sexy again? The group focused on clear states of crisis in history and in politics: the biblical clashes between prophets, kings, and people, Medieval confrontations between the prophetic and the legal traditions, and modern confrontations between the prophetic tradition and the rise of authoritarian secularist regimes, which can be seen as forerunners of more contemporary clashes between political systems and reformatory prophetic rhetoric. There should be controversy and debate.
