Ashrafūl Aid

. And has become a well-known name amongst South African and African local communities.

Mohammad Ashrafūl

The manner he concentrates on his batting made me believe that the lad is destined to have a long cricketing journey. In November 2006, he set a league record score of 263, against for Bangladeshi first-class cricket — although this record has since been bettered by. Though he scored his first first-class century in over a year in the competition, Ashrafūl was dropped from the ODI squad to face.

We use every cent to better their tomorrow. Three days later Ashrafūl made his list A debut, again playing for Dhaka Metropolis and opening the batting he scored 22 and took two wickets as his team won the match. From three matches Ashrafūl managed 18 runs and was dropped out from the squad for the three-match ODI series against Australia that followed.
