Theoretical Perspectives

You may not submit downloaded papers as your own, that is cheating. Durkheim believed that individuals may make up society, but in order to study society, sociologists have to look beyond individuals to social facts. Proponents, of course, consider this one of its greatest strengths.

Illusion / anti

Macro-level theories relate to large-scale issues and large groups of people, while micro-level theories look at very specific relationships between individuals or small groups. . In contrast, many Eastern societies would consider it much more appropriate to keep the wallet and search for the owner yourself; turning it over to someone else, even the authorities, would be considered deviant behavior.
