La Folie Douce

Located at the top of the Plateau chair at 1,800m, you are right in the heart of Avoriaz itself! There are many options for lunch and dinner - not just Middle Eastern.

La Folie Douce Hotel

This lovely ski-in, ski-out, self-catered chalet is perched alongside the green Piste Verte which winds directly down to the high speed La Daille gondola. For me the only interest are some outside settings in the village, but that's all.

It seems that they only recently opened during lunch hours and we pretty much had the place to ourselves - one couple on the other side of the room. But, some of the kitchen was in chaos.

Folie douce (1951)

We like this restaurant because it has a warm atmosphere is close to home, and the food is special,. This sunny mountain top sits at 1,958m offering stunning views of the Mont Blanc, the highest peak in Europe! With a mix of fresh urban sounds, funky fashion choices and fast moving feet you are definitely in for an unforgettable experience. From the stunning hot tub views of the Mont Blanc Massif, to the cosy and contemporary open-plan living space, Chalet Solaire is one of the loveliest chalets in Chamonix, and offers excellent value for luxury.
