Within the Law: From the Play of Bayard Veiller by Marvin Dana and Bayard Veiller

We hope that you find the site useful. As for elves and fairies, and other such mummary, I purposely omit the mention of them, as I should be very unwilling to confine within any bounds those surprizing imaginations, for whose vast capacity the limits of human nature are too narrow; whose works are to be considered as a new creation; and who have consequently just right to do what they will with their own.

Confines

Marketing Ethics Marketing tactics can walk a fine line between persuasion and manipulation, and this is another area where subjective ethics come into play heavily.
