For Our Church Leaders Father God, This virus is presenting new challenges every day. Thus, India has no assurances that the May 2020 Ladakh incursions were the only or the final threat to the territorial status quo — other acts of aggression or coercion may yet occur. They're going to find you anyway.

What's next? Challenges ahead for President Biden

We know you are sovereign, even over this. The crisis has highlighted three particular lessons that New Delhi should internalise and use to shape its future approach to strategic competition with China.

Leadership in times of crisis

It emerges from the crisis largely unscathed.

I ask that you equip your people to offer hope during this time, not panic. Taliban military commanders have given interviews saying they are effectively ready to cast aside peace talks and conquer Afghanistan while negotiators tell foreign press outlets these offensives will strengthen their hand for future rounds of peace talks. Commercial satellite imagery reveals that China built new roads and fortifications near Naku La in the second half of 2020.
