One Night in Payne House by R.L. Stine

The adventure is also considerably more challenging than the last -- there are quite a few red herrings, and only after you've died many times, receiving hints and knowledge of the house in the process, do you have much hope of winning.

Very random events, but everything flows together well.

One Night In Payne House (Literature)

Failure is also guaranteed should you deviate from the correct route through the book. She blames Calvin for her disappearance and even called the police on him! Claretha gets the royal treatment when she becomes engaged to an African prince.

Item

And to make matters worse for Curtis, Claretha is voted as forewoman. Similar to , the book forces you to choose only three out of eleven items before starting adventure, but is far harsher, as bringing only one incorrect item makes it impossible for you to survive the book.

REVIEW: One Night in Payne House by RL Stine

Ella, Curtis, CJ and the kids head to Florida to visit relatives, leaving Calvin in charge of the house.

Aunt Ella and Janine help her work the judges, but it's them that end up learning a lesson. Sure, nothing explicit is really detailed here, but you and Trevor could be crushed to death by moving walls in a room, for example, with your death screams ringing in the walls to terrorize future idiots foolhardy enough to sneak into Payne House. But Calvin has the perfect advice for her.

One Night in Payne House

Meanwhile, Janine shares an intimate moment with her boss, Roland. Soon, Calvin gets involved, and mayhem becomes the order of the day. You are all to be part of a human-spider experiment, which will involve removing your legs, and attaching them to someone else.
