They are wary that corporate interests are simply waiting for the dust to settle before resuming contributions to Republicans committed to deregulation and lower taxes, despite those lawmakers also championing positions on environmental and social matters the companies say they oppose. Literally go up to Mike Pence and capture him? Sara Jacobs, D-California, of the House chamber, to which she returned the night of the attack.

Ron Johnson questions whether armed insurrection occurred at Capitol

Over the course of the past five years, the labels I use when I create graphics based on polling have grown increasingly dark. Put those numbers together and consider that 74 million Americans voted for Trump and the realization is stark: 18 million Trump supporters strongly approve of what the mob did and 24 million see those in the mob as representing people like them. A crude bomb was hurled at state minister Jakir Hossain as he waited to board a train to at the Nimtita railway station in Murshidabad district on Wednesday evening.

How the attack on the U.S. Capitol unfolded

What was he expecting to do? President Donald Trump gather in front of the U. Attempts to distinguish the phenomenon of Trumpism from its predecessors do not have to trivialise it.

What was he expecting to do? No longer threatened by its reality, the enemies of socialism can only invoke its spectre. In the NewsHour poll, conducted by Marist College, the question was slightly different: whether respondents supported the actions at the Capitol. Pelosi's push for the panel came two days after the U.
