Historic Towns and Villages in Cornwall

Methodism went overseas with the emigrating Cornish: South Australia, Canada, Australia and the American Mid West had flourishing Cornish communities and Methodism was part of this strong cultural identity.

Cornish railway lines axed in Beeching cuts could be restored

But we couldnt see anything really inetresting. Other smaller ports and harbours that developed mainly because of fishing include Flushing, Port Isaac, Cadgwith, Mevagissey, Looe and Polperro.

Historic Towns and Villages in Cornwall

In total a quarter of a million people left Cornwall between 1841 and 1901.

Historic Towns and Villages in Cornwall

The first Old Cornwall Society was pioneered by St Ives in 1920 and the Federation of Old Cornwall Societies today represents 47 groups spread throughout Cornwall from Bude and Stratton in the North to Saltash in the East, The Lizard in the South and St Buryan in West Cornwall. It was on a smaller scale and required a smaller workforce.
