Witches of the Atlantic World: An Historical Reader and Primary Sourcebook

Breslaw's study deftly moves between Scotland and America, capturing the essence of Hamilton's various homes, belongings, travels, beliefs, behaviors, and writings. It tells stories of how she went through college, fell in love, struggled with body image and self-esteem, made peace with her past, accepted love, and adopted frail foster children.

Alexander Hamilton : definition of Alexander Hamilton and synonyms of Alexander Hamilton (English)

Early in the Convention he made a speech proposing a President-for-Life; it had no effect upon the deliberations of the convention. Born to a teenage mother, she was taken from her before she even turned 4 years old. Where Breslaw does connect Hamilton's work to the ideas of other Scots thinkers, such as David Hume and the historian Charles Mackie, she necessarily points to overlapping themes in the absence of more direct evidence.
