You should be aware too that much of the school jargon that we use without thinking about it will be inaccessible to ESL parents. This is my first Karen Rose book and by the first page I knew this was going to be riveting. A student in a big city, for example, might study statistics about pollution, read information about its effects, and travel to sites in their city that have been impacted by the problem.

I'm The Best by Lucy Cousins

The tension mounts as these three stories begin to intersect and the bodies start to pile up.

Trumpet Lessons & Online Trumpet Lessons

I just wasn't feeling it. Despite this time savings, she can also expect to see students reading achievement outcomes accelerate! Beginning ESL students tend to lose their voice and their personality when they enter the mainstream classroom in the first few months at FIS. That's when he discovered America.
