What does it mean to take every thought captive (2 Corinthians 10:5)?

Music blasted through the speakers, his kind of music. A few of my reminders about mind-talk have to do with other issues that might come up.

A Prayer for Taking Thoughts Captive

If you want your opening to explode, light a match. Yes, I am looking at quotation marks.

12 Powerful Tips to Overcome Negative Thoughts (and Embrace Positive Thinking)

Help me to be disciplined like the Apostle Paul who lived in such a way as not to be disqualified. That is, how do you turn off the thoughts from others? I am and have never been a writer of stories, but I am now making an attempt to write a short fan fiction story.

2 Corinthians 10:5 We tear down arguments and every presumption set up against the knowledge of God; and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

Once we determine that, we are better able to dismiss or act on the thought. Show readers the scene as it happened— The precinct had been crowded and noisy.
