Timeline

The destruction of the Jews must be its necessary consequence. The who died were not casualties of the fighting that ravaged Europe during

The Holocaust Wing

The gathered town by town, marched them to huge pits dug earlier, stripped them, lined them up, and shot them with automatic weapons.

The Path to Nazi Genocide

As non-Jewish groups began to include themselves as Holocaust victims, many Jews chose to use the term Shoah or the term

The Holocaust

The Romanian military killed up to 25,000 Jews during the between 18 October 1941 and March 1942, assisted by gendarmes and the police. In , in March 1933, a group of men entered the courthouse and beat up Jewish lawyers; Friedländer writes that, in Dresden, Jewish lawyers and judges were dragged out of courtrooms during trials. The occupied regions were under the control of a military governor, and there, anti-Jewish measures were not enacted as quickly as they were in the Vichy-controlled areas.
