Latin Demystified / Edition 1 by Richard Prior

Most of the content is more shallow and less friendly to read Standing by itself we might give it three or four stars - Prior is a good source.

If you are prepared to put the work in and really go through the exercises I can guarantee that you will make genuine progress. It really does deserve the almost universal praise it has got here and i thoroughly recommend it. It has helped make my self-directed journey into Latin everything I hoped it would be.

Additionally, the student must realize that the study of Latin must be ongoing over several years with much time spent in reviewing what has been learned and often forgotten because of lack of continuous reinforcement. After clicking around Amazon looking at the various options it was this book that i plumped for and I do not regret it for a second.
