Outsiders: Studies in the Sociology of Deviance

Just because one has committed an infraction of a rule does not mean that others will respond as though this had happened.

Outsiders: Studies in The Sociology of Deviance

There are the rule creators—those interested in the content of strong social rules or passing new laws and legislation. Informal rules may similarly die from lack of enforcement. That is, deviance is looked at in terms of group processes, definitions, and judgments, and not just as unusual individual acts.
