Ighathatul Lahfan Min Masayid Al Shaytan:Ibn Qayyim (D/I Jawziia

However, there are only a few chapters which do not have titles.

MISHKAT AL

His commentary on the Mishkat is brief. Copies of the handwritten manuscripts of this commentary are available in Pir Jhandu Muhibb Allah Shah Library in Sind, Pakistan and in the University of the Punjab Library, Lahore, Pakistan.

Makaa'id al

Al-Tabrizi has added a third section al-Fasl al-Thalith to most of the chapters in Masabih al-Sunnah. He was born in Herat, Iran, where he received his basic Islamic education. His commentary was also a brief one.

Ighathatul Lahfan Min Masayid Al Shaytan:Ibn Qayyim (D/I Jawziia

It has in all a total number of three hundred and twenty-seven chapters.

Ighathatul Lahfan Min Masayid Al Shaytan:Ibn Qayyim (D/I Jawziia

Al-Tabrizi has identified at the end of every Hadith the source or sources from where the particular Hadith was taken. It may be inferred that he chose to do that primarily because al-Tirmidhi had commented more, in comparison to the other compilers, on the quality of the Ahadith that are to be found in his compilation. His translation runs into five volumes and is entitled Mishkat al-Masabih — English Translation with Explanatory Notes.
