Collection: Marsden Hartley collection

After most of his family moved to Ohio, Hartley stayed behind to work in a shoe factory at age 15. Forced to return to America during World War I, Hartley wandered and worked across North America and later returned to Europe, never settling too long in one place.

Fake Marsden Hartley found in medical giant's collection points to a larger scandal

The collection consists of writings, correspondence, photographs, and other materials documenting the personal and professional affairs of Modernist-era painter Marsden Hartley. Watch the video below to hear more about Crane's death and the story of this painting.

Marsden Hartley Biography, Life & Quotes

Estimates vary between the contention that he did not know how to paint, and the assertion that he approached Winslow Homer in originality and power. The mood is evocative of loss, even death, and Stieglitz intimated that Hartley was, in fact, having suicidal thoughts at this time. When it does, we call it archetypal and are rightly moved to wonder.

Of Maine, Men, and Marsden Hartley

Yet Hartley spent most of his adult life elsewhere. He embraced the creation of paintings as a spiritual experience. Since everyone that Hartley loved died tragically, he may have completely retreated from attachments.
