Salutations be unto him, and praise. Newly licensed as a marriage and family therapist, she can't wait to start her practice. And then Ricky O'Shea drops in.

Memories of Ashchi

It was in this house, in the month of Jamādiyu'l-Avval 1284 A. I want to emphasize that I like to approach this thread not so much as a series of postings where one I, in this case posts and others passively print them and are done with, but rather as an opportunity to collectively deepen on many aspects of the life of Bahā'u'llāh. Anyway, the present copy is 149 pages long and its in the hand of Malik-Khusravi.

Some of Our companions and friends in various places complained against this, as it was a very grievous act, and was disapproved by all the loved ones of God. I have lost everything, including my bride.

Amir Khusro played an ideal role in the progress of Urdu as a new language. In the above section, a number of research questions can be identified which requires input from Talismanians by posting info from GPB, BKG or other sources. A certain Mir Muhammad, a Babi of Shiraz, greatly resenting alike the claims and the cowardly seclusion of Mirza Yahya, succeeded in forcing Siyyid Muhammad to induce him to meet Bahá'u'lláh face to face, so that a discrimination might be publicly effected between the true and the false.

You asked also about Mir Muhammad-i Shirazi. Bahá'u'lláh refers to this proposed match briefly, and blames the obstruction on one of his sisters, not on Aqa Mirza Rida-Quliy-i Nuri: However, Our late brother Mirza Muhammad-Hasan's daughter - upon him be the glory of God and His peace and His mercy - who had been betrothed to the Most Great Branch Abdu'l-Bahá was taken by the sister of this Wronged One from Nur to her own house, and from there sent unto another place. Amir Khusro was a musician, writer, and poet.
