

Report on Protectorate conditions - September 1948 : containing proposals for a scheme of malaria control based on health measures in combination with social and economic development

Government Printer - Salvaging the global neighborhood : multilateralism and public health challenges in a divided world

Description: -

-

Architects and community

Architecture and society

Malaria -- Gambia.

Malaria -- Prevention. Report on Protectorate conditions - September 1948 : containing proposals for a scheme of malaria control based on health measures in combination with social and economic development

-Report on Protectorate conditions - September 1948 : containing proposals for a scheme of malaria control based on health measures in combination with social and economic development

Notes: At head of title: The Gambia.

This edition was published in 1949

Filesize: 55.22 MB

Tags: #fifth #report

fifth report

Central African Republic are the inadequate medical and health coverage, particularly in rural areas, and Government health expenditure the inadequacy of material and financial resources. Concurrently with the policy support of Government, especially Burma Medical Research Council, the efforts of Dr.

PUBLIC FINANCE The New Public Finance

Therefore in 1950 the Assembly split its one-month session and, after meeting first in August, reconvened in November to consider the action the Committee of Ministers had taken on its recommendations. Iraqi Journal of Agricultural Science, 13:3-11.

fifth report

Only through such cultural expression can they arrive at that sense of identity and common purpose that must underlie all efforts at common political and economic action.

1. Conclusions and Recommendations

Morphological variation in British atherinids, and the status of Atherina presbyter Cuvier Pisces: Atherinidae.

Related Books

- Man who ended war
- Information relating to the establishment and administration of state-aided vocational schools.
- Meaning of evolution - a study of the history of life and of its significance for man.
- Quest-ce qu'une société d'individus?
- Dawsons Creek