With little else to do during lockdown, I recently walked up Cleve Hill to find the Neolithic long barrow Belas Knap, a 5500-year-old burial site, and another named location in Valhalla.

Gloucestershire

Stone for building of various qualities is raised from the Coteswold quarries; and in the forest of Dean is found a grit of which the best stones for cyder mills are made. He conned Carolyn Woods out of nearly £300,000 - using it to fund fast cars, expensive rental properties, his children's school fees and even a wedding dress. How do you even squash most of England into a game? The placement of the note suggests Valhalla's Temple of Ceres is the same site Tolkien worked on in the Forest of Dean, and its in-game placement makes geographical sense - although I found little in the ruins to link it to the Celtic deity Nodens.

11 of the most beautiful walks in Gloucestershire and the Cotswolds

He will be sorely missed. Getty A mural of Captain Sir Tom Moore, by artist Robert Newbiggin, adorns a wall in Southport. The cattle of this quarter are numerous and of various species ; that called the Gloucester breed being the predominating kind, though the long-horned breed of Staffordshire and of other midland counties seems likely to dispossess the original stock.

The Most Picturesque Towns and Villages in Gloucestershire

At this time, an eight week project took place to investigate the area around the bus station before any major development work was undertaken.

Life in the area

Arguably one of the jewels of the Cotswolds, Bourton-on-the-Water is a great place to start a stroll through the village. Cash was stolen after a supermarket was broken into in South Gloucestershire.
