This handsome manuscript map draws upon territorial surveys undertaken by French military engineers and draughtsmen in eighteenth century Louisiana.

Native American cultures in the United States

A popular song in Georgia at the time included this refrain: All I ask in this creation Is a pretty little wife and a big plantation Way up yonder in the Cherokee Nation. In spite of the All-Star Game draw, 1935 was another bad year financially for the Indians. The 912,000 fans who crossed through the turnstiles in 1920 remained an attendance record until purchased the team.
