These are the Lords of Karma, those invisible Intelligences who administer the great Law of Righteousness which establishes that as a man soweth so shall he reap; they select from the factors provided by the parents those that are most serviceable to the ego for the lesson he has to learn and for the work he has to do, in that particular body which Karma allots to him. But the Catholic body at large never distrusted him : the loyalty of his faith was as patent to them as his sincerity of mind was to all who knew him. Florinskii immediately agreed, and on 17 October 1877, the council elected him to the vacant post.

We read again ' It has been truly said that the Gnostic tradition was secret in so far only as all Christians did not, as a matter of fact, understand it, yet not secret in so far as all ought to understand it. For Catholics a new foe is more dangerous than Protestantism, for Protestants the same new foe is more dangerous than Catholicism. But it has also much of its raison d'être in reasons which are the conditions of efficiency for any organism.
