Global change and multi

In summing up, this section introduced fishantr'y as a new conceptual entity and analyzed it from seven different dimensions. It focuses more on people's strengths, abilities and capabilities than on their weaknesses.

CAB Direct

The event was carried out in the form of think tanks in which approximately 100 participants discussed and explored the four pillars of sustainability — economic sustainability, social sustainability, environmental sustainability and cultural sustainability — with the intention to collect materials for the current publication. This is higher than any other New Zealand city.

Animal Studies Bibliography

Through own architectural knowledge, we wish to make a process able to determine the social, physical and symbolic quality of any space. They seem not always forced, or do not feel the need to cooperate in an integrated approach of the area.

Global change and multi

In the Shadow of Man.
