James Dickson Innes, Llanelly 1887

In March 1908, in his third year at the Slade, and feeling the need for new horizons, both painterly and geographical, Innes set off for Europe, accompanied by a fellow student, John Fothergill. Since we are not professional conservators or restorers, we urge you to consult with a restorer or conservator of your choice who will be better able to provide a detailed, professional report. Having studied at Carmarthen Art School from 1904 to 1905, he went up to the Slade School of Fine Art in London in 1906, where he remained till 1908.
