The Best Giorgetto Giugiaro Designs

Designed around a glass dome of a greenhouse and four electric motors, the Sibylla has the performance credentials of a true-to-life sports car with the look of a futuristic sedan. ### We tailor our IT services to those of our customers

Like many other watches in the collaboration, with plastic elements and quartz movements, they're meant to be affordable and fun. The remaining shares were sold to Audi on 28 June 2015, with Giorgetto Giugiaro resigning from the firm at the same time. Or were his ideas too advanced for an industry that is often seen as lagging behind design trends, and the cutting edge of product evolution? This subsidiary is known today as Italdesign Giugiaro Barcelona SL.

Giugiaro Architettura & Structures

This customized Lambo will make its debut at the Geneva International Motor Show alongside an exclusive Excalibur Spider timepiece from watchmaker Roger Dubuis, signaling a collaborative partnership between the two companies. In 1974, Giugiaro diversified Ital Design and set up a Product Design division. For instance, Fiat Croma, De Lorean DMC-12, FSO Polonez, the first generation Volkswagen Passat and multiple Hyundai models were all designed by Giugiaro during the '70s and were mostly based on the design elements mentioned above.
