Government Bill (House of Commons) C

They must meet, if applicable any area of selection criterion in relation to belonging to an employment equity designated group.

Government Bill (House of Commons) C

Part 1 authorizes the Minister to provide job placement assistance services to assist Canadian Forces members and veterans in re-entering the civilian labour force. But what about those excluded, those whose sacrifices we refuse to acknowledge? They can be deployed to organizations whose appointments are made in accordance with the PSEA.

Veterans' House aims to serve those who have already served

Veterans are too often neglected by the government, which seems to care about them only once a year, in November. We will support the hon.

War Veterans Allowance Act

We must be careful not to send regrettable messages to people who were wounded along the way, after their active service was complete. It is clearly understood that both rehabilitation and transition success is heavily correlated with financial stability. Will the Prime Minister also commit to fast-tracking, the DNA bill? In other words, someone who marries a retired veteran over the age of 60 can never receive the benefits available to other military widows.

For those who have received injuries that preclude them from that ability, we must ensure that they and their families are cared for and compensated in a manner such that their quality of life, as near as possible, be no worse off than had the injury never occurred. They cannot be deployed to organizations whose appointments are made in accordance with the PSEA. Of all these complaints, about 25% are settled through discussions.
