Necessity, cause, and blame : perspectives on Aristotle's theory / by Richard Sorabji

The book relates Aristotle's discussions to both the contemporary debates on determinism and causation and the ancient ones. Necessity, cause, and blame : perspectives on Aristotle's theory.

Necessity, cause, and blame : perspectives on Aristotle's theory / by Richard Sorabji

He makes the original argument here that Aristotle separates the notions of necessity and cause, rejecting both the idea that all events are necessarily determined as well as the idea that a non-necessitated event must also be non-caused. A discussion of Aristotle's thought on determinism and culpability, Necessity, Cause, and Blame also reveals Richard Sorabji's own philosophical commitments.
