Don't Let Bitterness Poison Your Marriage

Unrealistic expectations and projections are detrimental to marriage, because people start putting too much pressure on their partners. Then one night I cried out to God realizing that this burden was too big for me alone.

How You Can Forgive Your Ex

If you feel guilty and find it hard to move on, even though your partner is ready to forgive you, please take into account that all people make mistakes. After all, we are all imperfect. Could it be that underlying deception again coming from him.

How You Can Forgive Your Ex

It is something that your husband will have to earn through his actions and behaviors and commitment to prove to you that he will be faithful. And knowing that he has lied about his faithfulness to you, you should also accept that he may be lying to himself about certain things.

6 Steps to Forgiving Your Ex

There will be time later to work out the details as a couple on confirming and validating that the other relationship has truly ended. Imagine having to deal with a man who breaks your heart knowingly, over and over again.

Don't Let Bitterness Poison Your Marriage

But letting another's actions limit your ability to move forward means he or she still exerts control over your life. Spiritual Practices May Help You Deal with Feelings.

7 Steps To Forgiving Your Ex Once And For All

Moreover, children usually feel what's going on even if you don't say anything.
