42 U.S. Code § 1437f

TITLE V- GRANTS TO STATES FOR MATERNAL AND CHILD WELFARE PART 1-MATERNAL AND CHILD HEALTH SERVICES APPROPRIATION SECTION 501. Since the named beneficiary at the time of dissolution may not be qualified, may not be in existence, or may be unwilling or unable to accept the assets of the dissolving organization, a provision should be made for distribution of the assets for one or more of the purposes specified in this chapter in the event of any such contingency. Many states also offer more stringent disqualifications for those fired for criminal behavior, such as cancelling all previous wage credits for future benefit calculation.

26 U.S. Code § 3304

The following discusses an exception to this general rule.

UIA Update: Michigan begins paying $300 supplemental benefit

See Form 1023, Part VII. Either one of these, standing alone, is sufficient to find that recovery will not defeat the purpose of the FECA. If the organization omitted or misstated material information, operated in a manner materially different from that originally represented, or, with regard to organizations to which section 503 applies, engaged in a prohibited transaction such as diverting corpus or income from its exempt purpose, or if there has been a change in the applicable law, the revocation or modification may be retroactive.

[USC02] 22 USC Ch. 39: ARMS EXPORT CONTROL

The concept of training and retraining to deal with the problems engendered by automation, skill development, and structural unemployment was common in the 1950's. The federal poverty line: An imperfect measurement of poverty The poverty estimates included in this fact sheet are based on the federal poverty line, or the minimum annual income for individuals and families determined by the U. C The term substantial misrepresentation means misrepresentation in which the person to whom it was made could reasonably be expected to rely, or has reasonably relied, to that person's detriment.
