The Turkish invasion resulted in the occupation of some 37% of the island in the north.

Turkish Cypriots

It is an important gateway for three continents namely Asia, Europe, and Africa. Once the settlers arrived, Turkish Cypriot officers gathered them in the village coffeehouse, collected their personal information, and the settlers were assigned the closest Turkish Cypriot-inhabited village to their place of residence as their place of birth in their special identity cards that were subsequently produced.

Turkish Cypriots

If the quid pro quo had been EU membership, a deal in my view would have been agreed. Well, why not since, together with others, he is part of the anti-Judeo-Christian brigade, as documented in Hofmann, 'Stealth Invasion' just published 2021. With a view to supporting its application for European membership, Serbia has also deployed official lobbyists.
