

Search and seizure; a manual for peace officers

Institute of Government, University of Georgia - Chapter 3: Search and Seizure (Probation and Supervised Release Conditions)

Description: -

-

Great Britain -- History, Naval -- 18th century.

Great Britain -- History -- 1760-1789.

Great Britain. Royal Navy -- Early works to 1800.

Islam -- Doctrines -- History.

Searches and seizures -- Georgia
Search and seizure; a manual for peace officers

-Search and seizure; a manual for peace officers

Notes: A revised version of the manual, originally written by J. Robert Sparks in 1964.

This edition was published in 1969

Filesize: 55.49 MB

Tags: #When #Can't #the #Fourth #Amendment #Protect #My #Privacy?

What is an unreasonable search or seizure?

Chief Justice Taft, writing the opinion of the Court, relied on two lines of argument for the conclusion. This hearing is conducted before trial to determine what evidence will be suppressed, or excluded, from trial. With respect to automobiles, the holdings are mixed.

The Good

Although the error in Herring was committed by a police employee other than the arresting officer, the introduction of a balancing test to evaluate police conduct raises the possibility that even violations caused by the negligent actions of an arresting officer might in the future evade the application of the exclusionary rule. Searches, Seizures, and Warrants: A Reference Guide to the United States Constitution. Macon, no legitimate expectation of privacy in denying to undercover officers allegedly obscene materials offered to public in bookstore.

Protecting Your Search Seizure & Miranda Rights

New York, , 583—86 1980 ; Steagald v. Searches must have probable cause All arrests and searches of places and people must be supported by probable cause.

The Good

And government agencies can state reasons to compel persons not suspected of a crime to submit to searches and seizures.

Lawriter

United States, ; Lopez v.

Related Books

- High-energy electron scattering tables
- Molens in Noord-Brabant
- Problems of banking and bank supervision.
- School income from public lands - hearing before the Subcommittee on Public Lands of the Committee o
- In haereticis coërcendis quatenus progredi liceat - poems - correnspondence