Contemporary Portraits of Japanese Women

International Anthologies A BOOK OF WOMEN POETS: FROM ANTIQUITY TO NOW. Includes biographical notes on the authors arranged alphabetically at the end. Rich in psychological detail, these distinguished stories chronicle the profound changes that altered the fact of postwar Japanese society, as suddenly women were freed from their traditional roles and achieved new rights—with a baffling new set of contradictory demands.

This Kind of Woman: Ten Stories by Japanese Women Writers, 1960

In short, I think this readable short story 15 pages + 16 lines is the best of all.
