Douglas Hall was named in his honor at his alma mater,. Briefly, the attitude of the standard-bearers representing the platform- principles of their several Parties, was this: Lincoln, representing the Republicans, held that Slavery is a wrong, to be tolerated in the States where it exists, but which must be excluded from the Territories, which are all normally Free and must be kept Free by Congressional legislation, if necessary; and that neither Congress, nor the Territorial Legislature, nor any individual, has power to give to it legal existence in such Territories.

It is, as a principle, no other than that if one man chooses to make a slave of another man neither that other man nor anybody else has a right to object.

History for Kossacks: American Politics, 1856

He should remember that he took us by surprise—astounded us—by this measure. The Democracy of to-day hold the liberty of one man to be absolutely nothing, when in conflict with another man's right of property; Republicans, on the contrary, are for both the man and the dollar, but in case of conflict the man before the dollar.
