Gender and Entrepreneurship: An Ethnographical Approach (Paperback)

Entrepreneurship can be read as a cultural and economic phenomenon. Presenting an ethnographic study of the gender structuring of entrepreneurship, this work employs three strategies: A critical survey of gender studies which argues that entrepreneurship is a cultural model of masculinity that obstructs the expression of other models; 'Reflexive' ethnographic observation conducted in five small firms which describes how business cultures are 'gendered' and how gender is the product of a social practice; An analysis of how discursive and narrative practices in business cultures constitute gender and entrepreneurship.

Gender issues in entrepreneur development

World Poverty Day: investing in Women — Solving the poverty puzzle. We then propose a final metaphor which conveys a summary image of these processes. Approximately 80% of transnational trafficking victims are women and girls and up to 50% are minors.

We then propose a final metaphor which conveys a summary image of these processes. In recent times, gender has become an increasing influence on entrepreneurship. Valdez succeeds in debunking myths about 'cultural explanations' in favor of a lens that incorporates structure and agency to demonstrate how differences in social positions lead to divergent life chances.

An integrative approach to the gender gap in entrepreneurship across nations

Our analysis shows how gender and entrepreneurship are enacted as situated practices and how the codes of a gendered identity are kept, changed and transgressed by constantly sliding between different symbolic spaces. Unite to end violence against Women Fact Sheet.

Gender and Entrepreneurship: An Ethnographical Approach (Paperback)

We employ the cross-cultural cognitive model of new venture creation to elucidate this variance. It can provide an accurate image about the magnitude of the difference and in the same time facilitate in monitoring the improvements in case any programs or action are implemented. Experimental learning: experience as the source learning and development.
