The book includes a number of new departures from previous editions, such as a complete listing of the 108,000 living persons. The king was so well satisfied with this signal performance, that he not only restored the earl to his estates and effects, but desired him to ask anything within his gift, and it should be granted.

Burke's Peerage Baronetage

A saltier, within a garland of bay-leaves, ppr. Article 1 refers to a non-Nova Scotia baronetcy. Being very handsome in his person, and of a tall stature, his lordship one day attended king William's court, and being admitted into the presence-chamber, asserted the privilege of being covered before his majesty, by walking to and fro with his hat on his head.
