From this small beginning arose that which soon became the chief support of the colony, and is now one of its staple commodities and a source of wealth. On the 30th an island was discovered which Bering named Tumannoi, or Foggy Island, but no landing was made. The length of the rivers decreases with the breadth of the land, and the mighty Lena is followed by the smaller Yana, Indi- girka, Kolima, and at last, in the farthest corner by the Anadir which empties into the Pacific.
