Latest quarterly political party donations in Northern Ireland published

We then publish this information monthly as part of our role in providing transparency in political finance in the UK. The result is that the, while births, marriages and deaths occurring in Northern Ireland from 1 January 1922 are held only by Northern Ireland, researchers now have a choice of where they source the historical pre-1922 records. More information on what constitutes a regulated donee and their legal reporting requirements is.

Births, marriages and deaths in Scotland and Ireland

You can use the reference information found in the indexes to order a copy of the original certificate. Some other records of marriage licences are indexed in the Testamentary card index available in the Reading Room. We are projecting that the average number of employee jobs will fall by around 1.

General Office Ireland

Parties will likely have received other donations from different individuals or bodies that are below the thresholds for reporting to the Commission.
