Villeneuve

As it developed, Jacques Villeneuve soon made a name for himself. He has something of the Ronaldo about him: the bewildered kid on the world stage, celebrated for his unique skill, but also isolated because of it. With three rounds to go he was 13 points away from the more experienced Hill and another win in Portugal meant it would go down to the final round.

We work with the team to prepare the car for racing, and we communicate during the race about pit-stops and strategy, but when you're driving you're by yourself, and you need to be strong mentally for an hour and a half. Mick Schumacher is a third offshoot from Maranello that will step up into the spotlight this season.
