Holbein the younger, Hans, c.1497

Although The Ambassadors is a clear reminder of human mortality - a state which overrides all earthly matters - it is not a pessimistic picture. Holbein continued to produce religious art, but on a much smaller scale. As well as being a portrait, The Ambassadors is also featuring numerous meticulously rendered objects.

Hans Holbein the Younger Facts

Whatever the case, it is likely that Holbein always supported his wife and children. Until the later 1530s, Holbein often placed his sitters in a three-dimensional setting.
