The (Not So) Exhaustive Guide to Underlay Stitches

Stitching If you have one, use a clear embroidery presser foot or an open embroidery foot to give visibility into your stitches. Do not use thread size 30 or thicker. The purse is lined with brown watered silk, and mounted with a clasp of gilt steel.

DRAWN THREAD WORK

The beauty of this lace depends entirely upon the regularity of the tatting. Floor and lap stands and accessories We love tea and carry a great black tea along with a wonderful magazine called.

The Dallas Lace Society: Library News

This collar is worked with very fine tatting cotton as follows:-- 1st circle: 2 double, 1 purl 7 times, 2 double, draw up the cotton.

20 Beautiful Hand Embroidery Designs

Point Russe stitch is made by a succession of back stitches. The middle oval of both medallions contrasts with the colour of the ground, and must therefore be worked in appliqué on the latter with herring-bone stitch, before working the outer border. Work with 2 threads; the knots are worked over the cotton, which is held in the right hand.

Anchor Manual of Needlework: Book Review

The knotted stitch seen in ILLUSTRATION 74 is worked thus:--Take about four threads of the material on the needle, draw the needle half out, wind the cotton twice round the point of the needle, hold it tight with the thumb, draw the needle out carefully and insert it at the place where the stitch was begun, and draw it out at the place where the next stitch is to be worked. This simple insertion is worked in raised satin stitch, the stems alone excepted; these are embroidered in overcast stitch. Work in double crochet with maize over one ring 38 stitches; this is the centre ring for the bottom of the purse.
