9.33 Myth about Tyranny of the Majority

Trump summoned two Republican lawmakers to the White House in an effort to block the certification process and overrule Michigan voters. By creating artificially narrow results, the electoral college makes it more likely that the results are close enough that the outcome could be swung by unelected judges.

Why The Electoral College Does Not Protect Against Tyranny Or Mob Rule

The electors' ballots from all states must be received by the president of the Senate by this date.

List of Candidates

Wallace and insisted that it should be counted for Mr. Don't forget to follow TCP News on , , , and Thank you for helping us grow, we appreciate it! The NPV scheme would temporarily suspend that legislative power—an act seemingly in violation of the Constitution. The news cycle moved on and the national conversation soon dampened to a whisper, but we cannot let the discussion die.

Oppose Virginia “National Popular Vote” Bills : The John Birch Society

When this disparity encounters the Electoral College, it could translate to staggeringly unrepresentative election results. This is unlikely, but there should not be so much uncertainty regarding a process that produced a large electoral and popular majority for Joe Biden. REF Unless approved by Congress, a compact that violates any one of these conditions would run afoul of the Compact Clause.

The Fight That Lies Between Status Quo and Secession

As to how we should respond, remember: Only power negates power.

Why The Electoral College Does Not Protect Against Tyranny Or Mob Rule

Democracy is ultimately based on trust, and Donald Trump has single-handedly compromised our faith in our system of governance.

Letter: NPV Compact does no violence to the Electoral College

I utterly disagree with this repudiation of the most basic American right — in my opinion, it is the duty and privilege of every eligible American citizen to vote — but I do understand the sentiment. Our founding fathers well understood that this country would not be a static, European state, unable to move past sclerotic habits—they built into our Constitution the mechanics to change to reflect a changing electorate.
