There are nine children in the family, but not eight of them sons, as one story has it. Perhaps because they were influenced longer by the cross-currents of European culture one had been a cavalry officer in Napoleon's march on Moscow they seemed less close-knit than their American counterparts, and in many cases their Amish ties were soon loosened. It does, however include data on many of the primarily Amish Yoder lines.

Joder's appointment as bishop and he participated in the Bishops' Synod of Aquileja in 381. Thanks for taking this on! Today it is just a sleepy country town with a grade school and a modern post office using ZIP Code 83244. This seems to be the Conrad who is said to have visited a relative in Pennsylvania and then joined a friend, Henry T Wediner, who was making a return trip to North Carolina.
