10 beautiful covered bridges to visit in southeast Pa.

The best option is to take the exit south of the bridge onto Route 284. According to county records, Chester County once had 85 covered bridges, 21 of which were shared with other counties. The longest covered bridge ever built was constructed in Pennsylvania between Lancaster County Columbia and York County Wrightsville.

Bellbank Bridge

The closest decent sized community to the Lairdsville Bridge happens to be Hughesville, which is approximately 5 minutes away, at the intersection of Rt 118W and Rt 405. The original bridge was built on this site in 1851 and destroyed by the flood of 1865 which resulted in the building of the second bridge. The bridge is located only about a mile off the road, making for a short detour.

Tour

All six bridges are listed here from roughly east to west. Another view of Kennedy Covered Bridge. The bridge was considered so picturesque, the Chester County Tourist Board presented a photograph of the structure to U.
