

Motivation and the disadvantaged trainee - a manual for instructors

Office of Education, Bureau of Adult, Vocational and Technical Education - Advantages and Disadvantages of Training

Five major themes about the future of jobs training in the tech age
OPPORTUNITIES	Theme 1: The training ecosystem will evolve, with a role of innovation in self-educative learners <ul style="list-style-type: none">• New learning systems will integrate online. Some will be self-directed and some offered or required by employers, others will be hybrid online/real-world classes. Workers will be expected to learn continuously.• Online courses will get a big boost from advances in augmented reality (AR), virtual reality (VR), and artificial intelligence (AI).• Universities still have special roles to play in preparing people for life, but some are likely to diversify and differentiate. Theme 2: Learners must cultivate 21st-century skills, capabilities and attributes <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Tough to teach: integrative skills such as emotional intelligence, curiosity, creativity, adaptability, resilience and critical thinking will have more strategic value.• Practical, experiential learning via apprenticeships and mentoring will advance. Theme 3: New credentialing systems will take on self-directed learning capacity <ul style="list-style-type: none">• While the traditional college degree will still hold sway in 2025, more employers may accept alternate credentialing systems as self-directed learning options and their measures evolve.• The proof of competency may be in the real-world work portfolio.
CHALLENGES	Theme 4: Training and learning systems will not meet 21st-century needs by 2025 <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Within the next decade, education systems will not be up to the task of adapting to train or retain people for training that will be most prized in the future.• Show me the money. Many doubts linger upon such of political will and necessary funding.• Some people are incapable of or uninterested in self-directed learning. Theme 5: Jobs? What? Jobs? Technological forces will fundamentally change work and the economic landscape <ul style="list-style-type: none">• There will be many millions more people and millions more jobs in the future.• Capitalism itself is in real trouble.
